Partner Information Supplement

UNITED KINGDOM

OVERVIEW
This supplement has been prepared to provide you with a summary of the tax consequences and other issues associated with the grant of restricted stock units ("RSUs") settled in shares of common stock of Starbucks Corporation (the "Company") under its 2005 Long-Term Equity Incentive Plan (the "Plan").
This supplement is based on tax and other laws in effect in your country as of August 2016. It does not necessarily address all local laws that may apply to you. Such laws often are complex and can change frequently. As a result, the information contained in the supplement may be outdated at the time you vest in your RSUs and acquire Shares of the Company's common stock ("Shares"), or at the time you sell such Shares.
Please note that this supplement is general in nature and does not discuss all of the various laws, rules and regulations that may apply. It may not apply to your particular tax or financial situation, and the Company is not in a position to assure you of any particular tax result. Accordingly, you are strongly advised to seek appropriate professional advice as to how the tax or other laws in your country apply to your specific situation.
If you are a citizen or resident of another country (or are considered as such for local law purposes) or if you transfer residency and/or employment to another country after the RSUs are granted to you, the information contained in this supplement may not be applicable to you.

This document constitutes part of a prospectus covering securities that have been registered with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission under the U.S. Securities Act of 1933, as amended.

TAX WITHHOLDING AND REPORTING
Reporting	Your employer will report the taxable amount at vesting as income to you to the U.K. HM Revenue & Customs ("HMRC"). You are also responsible for including any income resulting from the RSUs on your annual tax return.
Withholding	Your employer will withhold income tax and NICs (including employer NICs, if so required) due on the taxable amount at vesting through the Pay as You Earn ("PAYE") system. You are responsible for reporting any income associated with the RSUs at vesting on your annual tax return and paying any difference between your actual tax liability and the amount withheld from the taxable amount at vesting.

OTHER TAX INFORMATION
Dividends	Subject to an annual exemption allowance, you will be subject to taxation in the United Kingdom on any dividends you receive on Shares you acquire under the Plan. You are responsible for paying and reporting any tax resulting from the receipt of any dividends. Further, any dividends paid will be subject to the United States ("U.S.") federal tax withholding at source. You may be able to claim a reduced rate of U.S. federal tax withholding on such dividends as a resident of a country with which the U.S. has an income tax treaty. You must have a properly completed U.S. Internal Revenue Service Form W-8BEN on file with Fidelity Stock Plan Services LLC (or such other broker where the Shares are deposited) in order to claim the treaty benefit. You may also be entitled to tax credit in the United Kingdom for the U.S. federal tax withheld at source. You should consult with your personal tax advisor regarding the availability of such credit.

OTHER TAX INFORMATION
Sale of Shares	You will be subject to capital gains tax when you sell Shares acquired under the Plan to the extent that the sale proceeds exceed your cost basis in the Shares (i.e., the fair market value of the Shares on the vesting date), provided that your total capital gains from all sources for the tax year exceed your annual personal exemption amount. If you acquire Shares, whether under the Plan or outside of it, you will need to take into account the U.K. share identification rules in calculating your capital gains tax liability. These rules are complex and you should consult your personal tax advisor to determine how the U.K. share identification rules apply in your particular situation. You will be responsible for declaring any capital gains you realize upon the sale of Shares and paying applicable taxes due on such gains. If your sale proceeds are lower than your cost basis in the Shares sold, you will realize a capital loss. Capital losses may be used to offset chargeable capital gains (i.e., capital gains in excess of your annual personal exemption amount) realized in the current tax year or in any subsequent tax year.
